CLIFF EDGE REGAINS FORM

R. E. WATKINS FURNISHES WINNER OF PRINCIPAL RACE AT HAMILTON.

Mediator and Other Contenders Right There at the Finish—Two Other Winners Score by Narrowest of Margins.

Hamilton, Ont., July 30.—Several of the races here this afternoon furnished stirring contests, with the finishes close enough to leave the winner in doubt until the official placing was displayed. This was especially true of the second and seventh races, in which Earl of Savoy and Clubs got up in the final stride to win by the smallest possible margin. The Mid-Summer Handicap, the feature race of the program, also furnished an exciting struggle, less than half a length separating four of the six starters as they passed the winning mark. R. E. Watkins, whose horses have been winning quite frequently of late on this circuit, put over a good thing in this race in Cliff Edge. Cliff Edge was well supported, led from the start and in a driving finish, beat Mediator a neck. The latter was a nose in advance of Donerail, which in turn beat Plate Glass a head, Plate Glass was the favorite. Conditions appeared to suit Plate Glass to a nicety, but there was a disposition to fight shy of him. Plate Glass broke well enough, but before they had gone a sixteenth, he was in trouble and Knapp pulled him up. He then worked his way up on the outside and was carried wide on the turns. In the stretch he closed with a belated rush.

My Fellow, from the Bedwell stable, a receeding favorite in the seventh race, finished last after trailing along in the rear during most of the race. On the opening day on Saturday last, he showed a splendid performance in coming from behind to beat Effendi a head. The latter beat My Fellow eleven lengths in today's race.

Inlan, winner of the sixth race, was bid up from $500 to $905 by Sam Louis and was retained by his owner. Louis then claimed Working Lad, which finished second. This is the second time he has taken Working Lad from Herman Moesel, the latter having repurchased the horse from Louis after he claimed him at Windsor.

The stewards today issued a ruling which barred steeplechase jockey Simpson from the turf. It appears that on the opening day of the meeting Simpson made an improper proposal to jockey Wilson, who had the mount on The African, which finished second to Gun Cotton. The matter was reported to the officials, and today's ruling followed.

O. K. Herndon has purchased at private sale the two-year-old filly, Ida Cook, from S. Louis, and will ship her to Toronto.

John W. Schorr purchased the filly, Birdie Williams, this morning, paying $1,250 for her.

Jockeys Guy Burns and Loftus departed for Saratoga to-night. B. Steele and E. Martin will leave for the same place on Saturday next.

A. G. Weston, who is handling several two-year-olds for R. T. Wilson, on the Canadian circuit, will turn them over to T. J. Healey's assistant trainer, W. H. Price, who will handle them during the remainder of the season up here. Weston leaves for Saratoga to assume charge of Thomas Clyde's horses in the absence of Capt. W. F. Presgrave, who contemplates a trip abroad.

W. H. Northey, secretary of the Montreal Jockey Club, was a visitor here this afternoon. His mission was to arrange with Joseph McLennan for the compilation of the condition book for the fall meeting at Blue Bonnets. The stakes for the meeting will close August 7, and Mr. Northey will be at Saratoga during several days previous to their closing. It is expected that most of the steeplechase horses at Saratoga will be shipped to Canada to participate in the meetings at Montreal and Toronto, where several valuable steeplechase stakes will be given.

RACING IN MONTANA UNTIL OCTOBER.

Butte, Mont., July 30.—A handicap at one mile and an allowance race for two-year-olds were the features of a good afternoon's program here today. Bert Getty won the handicap after a hard stretch drive with Harry Lauder, which set a good pace all the way. Danberry, winner of the second race, was bid up to $305 by J. Cuneo and was retained by owner Heath.

Today's announcement by H. I. Wilson that the Great Falls meeting would postively open August 30, clears up the racing situation in Montana and will provide racing for horsemen until October. The number of horses now here insures a sufficient quantity to provide good fields at each place.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels visited the track and was an interested spectator of the racing during the afternoon.

FLUKY VICTORY FOR PERTHSHIRE.

Jockey's Poor Judgment Results in Defeat for Donald Macdonald in Newtown Selling Stakes.

New York, July 30.—W. N. Adrians' sprinter, Perthshire, appears to have the Indian sign on Donald Macdonald, for he again beat him today in the running of the Newtown Selling Stakes, one mile and a sixteenth. But, as was the case in their previous meeting, Donald Macdonald was the better of the two. While Perthshire ran a good, game race, it was Butwell's jockeyship that won the stake for him. Butwell was alert when the barrier was sprung and before Wilson, on Donald Macdonald, had realized what had happened, Perthshire was bounding along five lengths in front. On the far turn Wilson made his bid with Donald Macdonald and in making the turn into the stretch Perthshire's lead had been reduced to two lengths. But here Butwell's judgment again came into play, as he kept Perthshire close to the inner rail and did not lose an inch, while Wilson made a wide turn with Donald Macdonald. From there home it was a struggle between the two. Perthshire was a tired horse, while Donald Macdonald was closing fast, but Butwell put up one of his strong finishes and Perthshire got home first by a neck. Had Donald Macdonald not made the wide stretch turn, he could hardly have lost. As it was, he would have been the winner in about two more strides.

The tabulated history of the Newtown Stakes is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1903	Cameron	4	120	F. O'Neill	$1,380	1:13⅘
1904	Monet	3	106	T. Burns	1,370	1:17⅖
1905	Czaraphine	3	105	Baird	1,210	1:14⅕
1906	Grapple	4	105	Garner	1,270	1:13⅗
1907	Keator	5	111	Garner	1,295	1:13
1908	Aletheno	4	113	E. Dugan	1,350	1:16
1910	Madman	4	116	Taplin	675	1:12
1913	Perthshire	5	108	Butwell	675	1:45⅘

Not run in 1909. No racing in 1911 and 1912.

The closing race, for two-year-olds, ended with the disqualification of Notoriety, but his backers did not take kindly to the disqualification, as they did not see where he was at fault. Notoriety and Captain Burns were running close together until the last furlong. Up to that time Notoriety had been bumped several times by Captain Burns, but in the last sixteenth he was able to draw out and finish first by three parts of a length. From the stand it appeared as if Captain Burns swerved and hit Mordecai, which, in turn, struck Polly H. The last named was closing like a streak and was probably best of the field. She was knocked out of her stride and McCahey had to take her up sharply. After making his weight McCahey made a claim of foul and Karrick, Notoriety's rider, was called into the stand, after which the disqualification came.

Just before the running of the fourth race D. Wheelock, who is said to be an electrician, of Hempstead, died in the grandstand. It seems that early in the afternoon Wheelock had been eating bananas and was stricken with acute indigestion. J. B. Dowd, the track physician, was summoned, but he was not of any assistance to the man, who died in a short time of heart failure.

A report reached here from Saratoga this afternoon to the affect that Whisk Broom II., Harry Payne Whitney's great horse, winner of the Metropolitan, Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps, went wrong during a work-out at the Spa. According to the rumor, the son of Broomstick, after doing a fast three-eighths work in preparation for the Saratoga Handicap, which is to be run next Saturday, was suddenly eased up by Joe Notter, who rode him in all of his races here. He was taken back to the stable lame and it is not known just how seriously the mishap is.

The two-year-old, Gallop, will sport the Quincy Stable's colors in the opening dash to-morrow, as it was learned today that he had been claimed from J. L. Holland for $1,200 when he was beaten in a stake race a few days ago.

John O. Talbott, the western turfman, intends getting together a strong string of horses for next winter's campaign, and will make many purchases before the season ends in the East. He is also looking about for a rider and it is more than likely that jockey Skirvin will be engaged. Skirvin rode a few races for him at Charleston last winter and did well. At present Skirvin is under contract to Hugh McCarren, but the contract will terminate in a few months. McCarren is anxious to dispose of the boy, but it is said that he has set a stiff price on the contract, reports having it that he wants $5,000 for Skirvin's papers.

Jockey Butwell, who has been riding in excellent form during the past week, added three more winners to his credit today when he piloted Besom, Perthshire and Mordecai to victory. He was also second with Little Hugh and third with Margaret Meise. Butwell is riding in better form now than for several months.

Ten carloads of horses will be shipped to Saratoga to-morrow night, including the stables of J. O. Talbott and William Garth. The ten horses in the string of J. L. Holland will not be shipped until Friday morning, because the owner wishes to start Gainer in the Youthful Stakes to-morrow afternoon.

R. F. Carman and his followers again put over a good thing today when Luria won the third race. She was as good as 30 to 1 at one time in the betting, but closed at 12 to 1. She won after a strenuous struggle with Little Hugh and Bouncing Lass, the three being necks apart at the finish.

WOODBINE'S FALL STAKE PROGRAM.

Toronto, Ont., July 30.—Eight stakes are provided for the autumn meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club—that is, eight are now open, though a ninth, the Stanley Produce, closed three years ago, will also be run during this meeting, which occupies the last week in September. The added money ranges from $1,000 to $2,500, and it is all added, no part of the stake being retained.

The stakes, which will close August 11, are as follows:

Toronto Autumn Cup; handicap; $2,500 added; for three-year-olds and up; one mile and a quarter.

Ontario Jockey Club Cup; handicap; $2,500 added; for three-year-olds and up; two miles and a quarter.

Dominion Handicap; $1,500 added; for three-year-olds and up; foaled in Canada; one mile.

Durham Cup; $1,500 added; for three-year-olds and up; foaled in Canada; one mile and three-quarters.

Seagram Cup; heavyweight handicap; $1,000 added; for three-year-olds and up; owned in Canada; one mile and a sixteenth.

Michaelmas Handicap; $1,500 added; for two-year-olds; six furlongs.

Grey Stakes; $1,500 added; for two-year-olds; one mile.

Hendrie Steeplechase Handicap; $2,000 added; two miles and a half.

Besides these rich offerings and the Stanley Stakes, there is the Rothschild Cup, an overnight handicap, with $1,000 added, for horses owned in Canada. Overnight handicaps will be $700 and [illegible]00 and the entrance money will go in all cases to the winner.

PRINCE PALATINE BRINGS RECORD PRICE.

A London dispatch of yesterday states that T. Pilkington has sold his great race horse, Prince Palatine, to J. B. Joel, for the record price of $250,000. The highest price ever paid previously for a thoroughbred was $189,000 by M. E. Blanc, for the Triple Crown winner, Flying Fox. A condition of the present sale is that Prince Palatine is to be retained in England for future stud service. Prince Palatine is a five-year-old bay horse by the late King Edward's Persimmon—Lady Lightfoot, and is said to be a model of equine symmetry and power. When a two-year-old he won three races out of six starts, being victorious in the Bedfont Plate at Kempton Park, Donnington Castle Maiden Plate at Newbury and the Imperial Produce Plate at Kempton Park. As a three-year-old he started in five races and won two, the Gordon Stakes at Goodwood and the Doncaster St. Leger. Last year he ran seven times and won four, taking the Ascot Gold Cup, Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park, Doncaster Cup and the Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket, thus landing two of the much coveted "ten thousand pounders." This year he has started but twice, winning the Coronation Cup at Epsom and, for the second time, the Gold Cup at Ascot. It was in this latter race that the American colt, Tracery, was thrown by a suffragist when leading by six lengths.

Went to post at 3:57. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second easily. PERTHSHIRE was rushed into a good lead right after the start, which he held to the stretch, then tired, but by hard riding was kept in front long enough to earn the verdict. DONALD MACDONALD moved up resolutely after passing the far turn, but ruined his chances by making a wide stretch turn, then came fast in the stretch and was gradually wearing the winner down and would have won in two more strides. THE EVADER was rated close up for the first circuit, then was sent into the lead and was closely pressed by MALTBIE to the last jump, from where he drew out decisively on the flat. MALTBIE made several game efforts to pass THE EVADER, but was not good enough. ADVENTURESS was beaten off. BILL ANDREWS held a good position when he fell at the seventh jump. †Disqualified for foul. Time, 1:07⅕. Track good.

Winner—Ch. g, by Glorifier—Meta Russell (trained by William Garth).

Went to post at 4:51. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. NOTORIETY ran in close pursuit of CAPTAIN BURNS until in the last eighth and, although bumped several times, drew out in the final strides, but was afterwards disqualified. MORDECAI ran well and had a rough race, being interfered with several times. POLLY H. was probably best, but was interfered with right after the start by CAPTAIN BURNS and in the last eighth was closing up fast when CAPTAIN BURNS hit MORDECAI, which in turn hit POLLY H. and she had to be taken up sharply. CAPTAIN BURNS showed the most speed for a half mile, then tired.

Scratched—9618 Kedron, 96.

Overweights—Mordecai, 2 pounds.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY TO DO HIS DUTY.

Albany, N. Y., July 30.—District Attorney L. B. McKelvey of Saratoga County has informed Gov. Sulzer of his intention to enforce the anti-race track gambling laws during the racing season which opens at Saratoga on Saturday next. The governor last week warned the district attorney under pain of removal to enforce the law. "It is my purpose to enforce these laws, as they are written, to the extent of my power and understanding," says the district attorney's letter, "and it is my hope that the work of the district attorney's office in this county may commend itself in this, as in all other respects." Sheriff Clarence L. Grippen received the same warning.

WASHING DAY WINS GOODWOOD PLATE.

London, Eng., July 30.—At the Goodwood meeting today the Goodwood Plate of 1,000 sovereigns for three-year-olds and upward at two miles and three-eighths, was won by H. Saville's four-year-old chestnut gelding, Washing Day, by Laveno—Auspicious, 94 pounds. Lord Cholmondely's five-year-old gelding, Bundook, by Fowling-piece-Thaisa, 93 pounds was second and Lord Derby's four-year-old bay colt, Corncob, by Martagon—Arista, 112 pounds, ran third.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Once widely known as the chief horseshoer of the famous racing stable of Pierre Lorillard at his estate near Jobstown, N. J., John J. Farrell died Tuesday, having been stricken at the forge in the shop he has conducted since Mr. Lorillard's death. The latter, it is said, would permit no other man to shoe his horses. He took Farrell abroad merely to look after the plating of his horses.

SALES OF THOROUGHBREDS IN ENGLAND.

While the Newmarket Second July meeting was in progress a number of broodmares, horses in training, yearlings and foals, were sold at auction by Messrs. Tattersall. In some cases good prices were realized, but nothing of a really sensational order in that line cropped up. Two broodmares sent to the sale by Martin Gurry didn't bring their reserve prices, but were afterwards sold privately to John Sanford, of Amsterdam, New York, they being the five-year-old brown mare, Oppression, by St. Serf—Liza, by Hampton, with a filly foal by St. Frusquin and bred to Radium, for $8,840, and the five-year-old chestnut mare, Light Opera, by Zinfandel—Light Comedy, by Rose Window, with a colt foal by Santry and bred to Sunstar, for $7,800. Both of the foals are chestnuts and these purchases should prove a valuable addition to the resources of Hurricana Stud Farm. The other horses that sold for $2,500 or more were:

Pernelle, bay mare, by Persimmon—Nuneaton; Major Wise $10,400
Lady Fowler, chestnut mare, by Wildfowler—Orxema; Lord St. Davids 8,320
Matilde, bay mare, by Desmond, dam by Bushey Park; Count Szapary 7,800
Bay yearling filly, by William III.—Glasalt; J. A. Austen 7,540
Samson's Hill, bay colt 3, by Sir Edgar—Myne; Lord Herbert Vane Tempest 6,760
Bay yearling filly, by Santry—Cydaria; J. G. Austen 3,640
Bay yearling colt, by Lally—Extinct; Sir B. Sheffield 2,860

Minor sales of interest to this country were those of the four-year-old Cataract, by Ben Brush—Running Stream, to Emil Herz, for $1,300, and of J. B. Haggin's three-year-olds filly, Final Shot, by Watercress—Isiac, to M. T. Young, for $2,440. Cataract was a crack two-year-old when racing for James R. Keene in England and was sold to T. Pilkington for a big price, but has been of little account since.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

C. L., Detroit, Mich. The bet was on Mandadero as the race was run and lost.

J. G., St. Thomas, Ont. There is no such rule. Tecumseh had gone to the post and, being in the starter's control bets on him stood and lost.

J. W. S., St. Louis, Mo. Pendergast rode Auntie Curl in the second race at Butte July 28. Burlingame rode Alta Loma Maid in the same race.

C. H. K., Norwood, O. Goldfinn's reference in race 9430 was correctly printed as 7571². Buzz Around's reference in race 8872 should have read 8661³.

F. A. W., Detroit, Mich. Bets abroad were made on the race as it was run and if Mandadero had won his backers would have been entitled to payment.

Leo E., Detroit, Mich. The last Chicago racing, holiday affairs excepted, took place over the Worth track October 31, 1904. There has been no regularly conducted racing here since that date.

Alfred M., Chicago. No charges. Cannot give you Great Britain's place price in race 8911, for the reason that it was mutuel betting, and only the prices attaching to the place that paid were furnished for publication. If what you wish to know is whether there was place betting or not you can rest assured that there was plenty of it.
